HESA currently presents the official name of institutions in its institution level tables, and responds to approved changes as necessary. However, there are institutions that are known by other names. Some of these are as follows:

The Victoria University of Manchester is also known as the University of Manchester
 University of Wales, Cardiff is also known as Cardiff University.

Since the production of these tables the following institutions have changed their names:

Chichester Institute of Higher Education is now University College Chichester
 Queen Margaret College is now Queen Margaret University College, Edinburgh.

Changes to Institutional Tables

Transfers from FE to HE in 1997/98.

- Cumbria College of Art and Design, Carlisle

The list of institutions in the HESA reference volumes for 1997/98 has changed and the following institutions are no longer shown separately:

- Charing Cross & Westminster Medical School
- Institute of Psychiatry (associated with King's College London)
- La Sainte Union College of HE
- Royal Postgraduate Medical School

As a consequence of a review of cost centres by the funding councils, additional cost centres have been introduced. The new cost centres provide further detailed breakdown of some of the existing cost centres, which can all be mapped back to the original cost centre groupings. Use of the new cost centres was optional for all institutions in 1997/98. As such, to give consistency of presentation, HESA has mapped all new cost centres back to the original cost centre groupings. In some cases this has resulted in an apparent shift from cost centre 25, information technology & systems sciences, to cost centre 20, electrical, electronic & computer engineering. This apparent shift is due to the agreed mapping of new cost centre 39, computer software engineering, to cost centre 20.
